

DANCING ANGELS

HON. PETE SESSIONS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, January 8, 2018

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, I include in the RECORD a poem, on behalf of Albert Carey Caswell, to honor a great American family of faith and courage. On March 6, 2012, CW2 Edward "Duane" Cantrell of the United States Army, a team leader of The Green Berets, with four Purple Hearts, and 6 Tours in the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars died in a house fire while trying to save his two lovely daughters Isabella and Natalia. They all perished together. Left behind in the wake of all of this sorrow and heartache was his wife Louise, who has taken the most horrific of circumstances and created a foundation in remembrance of them and to provide scholarships, and other assistance to help passionate and committed young dancers to fulfill their dreams called "Dancing Angels". She is an inspiration to us all.

Rise

Rise up to heaven with tears in your eyes Little Sisters who've brought such joy in their little short lives

As before our Lord you now lie
As so gently he wipes away all of those tears
from your eyes

Don't worry your safe now, in our Lord's arms you now lie
And your Daddy is right by your side
So hush little girls don't you cry With your most courageous Mother left on earth in your name to vie

Who for all of you and us must somehow still try

For she has so many hearts to heal
And so much inspiration for all of us to feel
To so teach us
To so beseech us

To so show this world what is real
And she has so much more to do Until, one day she comes up to heaven to be with you

But, its not yet her time for our world needs to look upon her warm hue

So dance, dance for her and your Daddy and our Lord up in heaven in view

And she will hear you on the wind And she will feel you in the morning when she awakes, as next to her all night you have been

To help her find the strength, all in what a heart of courage can mend

As up to heaven on this day Two little beautiful Angels, Isabella and Natalia have so made their way

As they begin to dance night and day
As they begin their dance, which makes our Lord smile and pray
And if you listen closely on the wind, we can hear their little footsteps my friends And all of these lessons about life by Louise time and again

To help all hearts of despair somehow to mend

And that out of the darkness, light too can come in

Whenever hearts of courage begin To against all odds to so fend Heartache and sorrow my friends Because, out of such pain and such sorrow, a new tomorrow from faith deep down within can begin!

So dance, dance Little Angels, with but smiles on your face from heaven you send

And let us remember life is so short, let not the minutes you waste time and again
So hold your families close And ever remember what so means the most And from a distance what now seems like the very worst

May not be this end, for isn't it up in heaven where we all wish to transcend

And that's where all these Dancing Angels on this day can heard

Dance, Dance, Dance Little Angels, hush little girls don't you cry

Because, one day up in Heaven you will look into your Mother's beautiful eyes

When, she comes up to be with you and Daddy and our Lord on high

So Dance, Dance, and wipe all of those tears
from your eyes

Amen.

HONORING LYNN RANEY

HON. RODNEY DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

Mr. RODNEY DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Lynn Raney, who passed away on December 28th. He was a talented artist, a dedicated state worker, an admired teacher, and a respected member of our Central Illinois community.

Lynn found great joy in serving others. I got to know him during his time working in public service for the State of Illinois. There was never a day Lynn did not have a smile on his face, even in the midst of difficult family health tragedies.

As a boy, Lynn was active in the Boy Scouts, achieving honors such as the Eagle Scout, the Silver Beaver, and the Wood Badge. Later in life he was proud to serve as a volunteer, teaching the values of the Boy Scouts to younger generations.

I have no doubt that Lynn will be remembered well for his talent as an artist. Not only did he teach art to high school students, but he was known for the care and creativity he put into his annual Christmas cards. Just before Christmas, I received one of his cards and I will cherish it even more after his passing.

I am proud to honor Lynn today. He left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him. He was a good friend, a devoted husband, and a loving father who will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time.

OATH CEREMONY

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure and sincerity that I take this time to congratulate thirty individuals who took their oaths of citizenship on Friday, January 5, 2018. This memorable occasion was held at the United States Courthouse and Federal Building in Hammond, Indiana.

America is a country founded by immigrants. From its beginning, settlers have come from countries around the world to the United States in search of better lives for their families. Oath ceremonies are a shining example of what is so great about the United States of America—that people from all over the world can come together and unite as members of a free, democratic nation. These individuals realize that nowhere else in the world offers a better opportunity for success than here in America.

On January 5, 2018, the following people, representing many nations throughout the world, took their oaths of citizenship in Hammond, Indiana: Drago Pupac, Branka Pupac, Diep Dinh Do, Asma Aftab, Niranjan Awasthi, Magdalena Anna Skupien, Claudio Eduardo Diaz Ayala, Maria Griselda Rodriguez Diaz, Carmela Velazquez, Florencia Stoll, Susan Pandey Joshi, Mamoon Arif Raza, Jayakumar Chockalingam, Syed Muhammad Aftab, Sergiy Igorovyc Mosendz, Leah Nyokabi Wambui, Heidie Principe Kuskye, Krystyna Zofia Kret, Chiamara Chibueze Ugochukwu Anokwute, Rubinely Calderon, Carlos Cortes, Andrea Gianelli Cunanan, J. Refugio Garcia, Marie Grace Healy, Manuel Herbert Leyva, Ume Ruman Khaja, Maria Marquez, Cristian Alberto Osoria, Amy Hui Ren, and Federico Santamaria.

Although each individual has sought to become a citizen of the United States for his or her own reasons, be it for education, occupation, or to offer their loved ones better lives, each is inspired by the fact that the United States of America is, as Abraham Lincoln described it, a country "... of the people, by the people, and for the people." They realize that the United States is truly a free nation. By seeking American citizenship, they have made the decision that they want to live in a place where, as guaranteed by the First Amendment of the Constitution, they can practice religion as they choose, speak their minds without fear of punishment, and assemble in peaceful protest should they choose to do so.

Mr. Speaker, I respectfully ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to join me in congratulating these individuals who became citizens of the United States of America on January 5, 2018. They, too, are American citizens, guaranteed the inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We, as a free and democratic nation, congratulate them and welcome them.

INTRODUCTION OF THE BUILD AMERICA ACT OF 2018HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

Mr. HASTINGS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Build America Act of 2018, legislation that will significantly increase the size and scope of two very successful merit-based infrastructure grant programs without adding a penny to the national debt. Specifically, this legislation would remove the Capital Investment Grant Program (CIG), also known as New Starts/Small Starts, and the Transportation Investment Generating Economic Recovery Grant Program (TIGER Grants) from the annual appropriations process, establishing them as mandatory programs with permanent and expanded funding. My bill proposes to increase TIGER funding to $3 billion
